Hi [REDACTED]
Sorry not to get back to you yesterday.

As we received the application on Monday 11th March, we count day 1 as Tuesday 12th March and hence day 30 is Wednesday 24th April. This approach is to take into account of applications that are received just before the end of a working day - we start counting the following working day. We will indeed issue a determination by the end of the day on Wednesday 24th.
Apologies if that causes problems with [REDACTED] meeting.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Just spoke with [REDACTED], who says he has yet to hear from NE about his buzzard applications.

By my reckoning, 'Day 30' is next Tuesday (23rd) and the need to get on with the nest destruction in particular is urgent. Will he have a determination by then, as [REDACTED] has pledged? He has arranged a shoot syndicate meeting for that evening to discuss the way ahead in the light of NE's response, I gather.

Thanks,
