HURTIGRUTEN

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

WITH 'NATURE'S HOME' COLUMNIST AND AWARD-WINNING PHOTOGRAPHER BEN ANDREW

Join Hurtigruten, the RSPB's partners in saving species like the Albatross, as they host a photography workshop with 'Nature's Home' columnist and award-winning photographer Ben Andrew at RSPB Pulborough Brooks.

You'll be in a small group of up to 15, and as well as receiving 1:1 tuition from Ben on making the best use of your camera and how to compose beautiful and creative photographs, you'll be accompanied by a member of the RSPB reserve team who will help you to track down and identify the wildlife.

SATURDAY 9TH MARCH 2019

There will be two sessions, the first starting at 10.00, followed by a second at 13.30. These sessions will also include a special presentation from Hurtigruten.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be provided and please wear suitable outdoor clothing.
