

Programme

Remember! Some of these FREE events have limited places. Bee sure of your place, book ahead!

Thursday 2 August

11am to 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

This brilliant biodiversity team at Land and Environmental Services (LES) keep Glasgow buzzing in this evolving plant-athon! Learn about pollinators and the flowers and plants they love.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Story in the Park

Join RSPB with your under 5yr olds, meet the different things that make up a park, from the bushes and bees to the toddlers and trees!

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Bird Detectives

Let RSPB lead you around the festival for sights and sounds of birds, then help build a giant nest just like an osprey!

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Sandy Paterson from LES leads a team of experts showing you there is no end to what can be grown in recycled containers from tin cans to pallets!

5.30pm - 6.30pm

Daily wind down... music and talks on the hay bales! This evening from fiddler, Lori Watson.

Friday 3 August

11am - 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing in this evolving plant-athon. See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Mini-beast Mania

Hiding in the bushes and buzzing in the flowers, catch mini-beasts with RSPB and discover more about them.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Tree-mendous Trees

Trees are pretty fantastic, RSPB will tell you all about the ones on the Green, you'll then create some environmental art!

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets. See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: Shona Maciver

Shona Maciver, director of locofoco.co.uk, an award winning consultancy, created the much loved logo for the Glasgow Garden Festival in 1988. She has a great story to tell about how Glasgow took it to its heart; from knitting patterns to empire biscuits! She'll be running design workshops on Sat 11 Aug and Sun 12 Aug: 1pm to 3.45pm.

Saturday 4 August

11am - 12noon

RSPB: Bird Detectives

Let RSPB lead you around the festival for sights and sounds of birds. See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Tree-mendous Trees

Trees are pretty fantastic, RSPB will tell you all about the ones on the Green.

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

2pm - 3pm and 3.30pm - 4.30pm

Words in a Garden

In the historic setting of Glasgow Green, inspire yourself with the language of nature, flora and fauna, adorn our bunting with poems, memories and stories! A fun family workshop led by Julie Fraser.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: Gino Satti, Friends of Springburn Park

Gino talks about setting up and running a 'Friends' group.

Sunday 5 August

11am - 12noon

RSPB: Tweeting Toddlers

Take your tiny ones on a learning journey with RSPB using stories, songs, crafts and natural play. Today's theme is Mini-beasts!

2pm - 3pm and 3.30pm - 4.30pm

RSPB: Worm Charming Championships

Worms are amazing and essential for our soil! Gulls stamp on the ground to catch worms in a dance known as worm charming. Join RSPB to jump, stamp and march around in our own worm-charming!

2pm - 3pm and 3.30pm - 4.30pm

Words in a Garden

A fun family workshop.

See listing - Sat 4 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: South Seeds

Sharing ideas behind The Croft, this inspired project hooks people up with growing spaces by way of adopting a raised bed.

Monday 6 August

11am - 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing with this evolving plant-athon!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Mini-beast Mania

Catch mini-beasts with RSPB and discover more about them.

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Bird Detectives

Let RSPB lead you around the festival for sights and sounds of birds.

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: RSPB Scotland

A popular nature talk about the wonderful world of swifts.

Tuesday 7 August

11am - 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing with this evolving plant-athon!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Bird Detectives

Let RSPB lead you around the festival for sights and sounds of birds.

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Worm Charming Championships

Worms are amazing and essential for our soil! Gulls stamp on the ground to catch worms in a dance known as worm charming.

See listing - Sun 5 Aug.

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: RSPB Scotland

Jackie Brown tells us all about conservation volunteering.

Wednesday 8 August

11am - 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing with this evolving plant-athon!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Mini-beast Mania

Catch mini-beasts with RSPB and discover more about them.

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Tree-mendous Trees

Trees are pretty fantastic, RSPB will tell you all about the ones on the Green, you'll then create some environmental art!

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

Daily wind down... music and talks on the hay bales! This evening from fiddler, Lori Watson & friends

Thursday 9 August

11am - 12noon

LES: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing with this evolving plant-athon!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Story in the Park

Join RSPB with your under 5yr olds, meet the different things that make up a park, from the bushes and bees to the toddlers and trees!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Mini-beast Mania

Catch mini-beasts with RSPB and discover more about them.

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: North Kelvinside Meadow

Emily Cutts talks about this well established and popular community greenspace.

Friday 10 August

11am - 12noon

LED: Planting for Pollination

Keep Glasgow buzzing with this evolving plant-athon!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

12noon - 1pm

RSPB: Tweeting Toddlers

Take your tiny ones on a learning journey with RSPB using stories, songs, crafts and natural play. Today's theme is garden birds!

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Bird Detectives

Let RSPB lead you around the festival for sights and sounds of birds.

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

2pm - 5pm

LES: Food and Growing with Pallets

Learn to grow using tin cans and pallets!

See listing - Thu 2 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: RSPB Scotland

A popular nature talk about moths!

Saturday 11 August

11am - 12noon

RSPB: Marvellous Moths

Moths can be just as exciting and their butterfly cousins. Join RSPB and they'll open up their moth trap to see which ones live in the heart of our city.

1pm - 1.45pm, 2pm - 2.4pm and 3pm - 3.45pm

Design with Nature, 6yrs+ and families

Shona Maciver, designer of the 1988 Garden Festival logo, leads workshops at 1pm, 2pm and 3pm for budding young designers. Using inspiration from nature, what's around us along with your imagination and make your mark!

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Mini-beast Mania

Catch mini-beasts with RSPB and discover more about them.

See listing - Fri 3 Aug.

5.30pm - 6.30pm

TALK: Paul Sweeney MP, Springburn Winter Gardens Trust

A lively talk about the rise and fall of Springburn's A listed Winter Gardens in the heart of Springburn Park.

Sunday 12 August

See overleaf

Celebrating Glasgow's Gardens

A programme that is covering a lot of ground!

Marking the 30th anniversary of Glasgow's Garden Festival in 1988, we're looking back and looking forward.

Share your memories of 1988 and tell us what you think about the future of Glasgow's gardens. From window sills to allotments and bugs to bees, start your own green space journey with help from us.

Take advantage of all-day info displays, activity stalls, drop in sessions, demonstrations, talks and workshops. Flick through our photo albums, use the pop up selfie-booth, make a pledge, craft your own insect or join us for a bit of garden chat!

Coordinated by Springburn Winter Gardens Trust and delivered in partnership with RSPB and Glasgow City Council Land Environmental Services (LES).

Contact us:

 springburnwintergardens
 SpringburnWG

Everything is FREE,

Daily listings are overleaf to plan your days out.

Space is limited for some events, so be an early bird and catch the worm by booking ahead at www.eventbrite.com

See the bee symbol for all ticketed events. Limited capacity so it's advisable to book in advance.

Daily Info Stalls and Activities

- » Join RSPB Scotland every day and get closer to nature. Craft bee homes and bird feeders and make a better space for wildlife.
- » Land and Environmental Services (LES) present information stalls from their Biodiversity, Food and Growing teams with seed giveaways too! Mon to Fri: 10am to 5pm.
- » Make fun memories of your day using our selfie booth! Enjoy picture books of Glasgow's Garden Festival in 1988 and share memories with your thoughts for the future.
- » Exhibition at People's Palace, 10am to 7pm Celebrating the 30th anniversary of Glasgow Garden Festival '88 Commissioned by RSPB as part their Wildlife Festival celebrations over 2018.

Sunday 12 August

11am - 12 noon

RSPB: Tweeting Toddlers

Today's theme is animals on the river. Take your tiny ones on a learning journey with RSPB using stories, songs, crafts and natural play.

1pm - 1.45pm, 2pm - 2.45pm and 3pm - 3.45pm

Design with Nature, 6yrs+ and families

Shona Maciver, director of Locofoco Design and designer of the 1988 Garden Festival logo, leads workshops at 1pm, 2pm and 3pm. Using inspiration from nature, what's around us along with your imagination and make your mark!

See listing - Sat 11 Aug.

2pm - 3pm

RSPB: Worm Charming Championships

Worms are amazing and essential for our soil! Gulls stamp on the ground to catch worms in a dance known as worm charming.

See listing - Sun 5 Aug.

Sunday 12 August

4.30pm - 6.30pm

Calling all community growing spaces, allotmenters, stalled space guerrillas, foragers and food co-ops. Join us in a closing event with live draws prizes and giveaways. The fully planted pots will be donated to local community groups. To win one, drop in over the 10 days and leave details of your community group and why you'd like one. A draw on the last day will announce the winners.

Celebrating Glasgow's Gardens GO LIVE! at the Green

Thu 2 - Sun 12 August 2018

10am to 7pm

